CB2300/CBX23 Trailer Air Suspensions

Air Spring Product Update

November 2009

Introduction

This is to notify you of a product update to the air spring used on CB2300/CBX23 trailer air suspensions. In our ongoing efforts to give the industry the highest quality products available, we have changed our current air spring offering to the updated air spring offering shown (Figure 1).

Field Replacement

If you find it necessary to change out an air spring in the field, the new air springs are completely interchangeable with our current/latest product designs in the field. When doing this, it is not necessary to replace both air springs.

NOTE: The new part numbers will be phased in as inventory levels of the old product is reduced.
